Election Returns.

Returns From Tuesday's Election Come in Slowly.

About Two-Fifth of the State Heard From in a Day.

These Reports Gave Goebel a Plurality of 1,777.

It Has Been Neck and Neck with Goebel Always in the Lead.

Republicans are Still Claiming and Squaking "Fraud, Fraud, Thief, Thief," and Then Crying "We Had No Chance."

Democrats are Confident and From the Democratic Headquarters Goes Out the Report, the State Ticket Elected by 8,000 !!

Tuesday was a beautiful day and a big vote was polled all over the State. Trouble had been anticipated at many polls but it did not come. The anticipation however was with the Republicans, they talked mighty big about what they would do if the Democrats didn't walk the chalk and now because nothing happened they think their threats frightened the Democrats into being good boys. There wasn't any matches laying around for those brave Repubs to step on. If there had, and any of them been stepped on one and it had gone off, it would have become necessary to sweep some follow up.

Wednesday morning Chairman Blackburn had expressed himself that the State ticket would win by a small majority, and at the same time Chairman Long gave it out that Taylor would win by a majority of 14,000 and that the Legislature would be Republican and that the Goebel law would be repealed, but since that time Mr. Long has become weakened and now he hardly knows where he is or on what he is standing.

Senator McCord has been elected Railroad Commissioner. John C. Wood (Rep.) leads Col. Hamilton to the goal with a vote of about 7,000 majority. Gov. Bradley stayed over in Louisville election day to command the troops and because he had no legal right to command forces the boys down in Louisville will make the "twofer" Governor smoke and set him "a-cusin".

Latest report from corrected returns gives Goebel a majority of 3,887 with seven counties to bear from and estimating these counties by a vote of 97 it would give Goebel's plurality to 1,702.

Goebel's wife, a sympathetic pre-nuptial referee, had her teeth pulled.

Democratic headquarters the committee is confident of the election of Goebel. A telegram from Goebel says, "I am elected."

To the Louisville Times of the 8th he says: "I have advances sufficient to say the entire Democratic ticket is elected by not less than 7,000 and a working Democratic majority in each branch of the Legislature."

There may be a contest but it now appears that the State Democratic ticket is elected.

REPORTS

From Other States Briefly Given.

OHIO

Has given Judge Nash, the Republican candidate for Governor, a plurality that will reach fully 50,000 and possibly exceed it. Jones (non-partisan) has managed to carry his own county (Lucas) by nearly 1,800, and has carried Cuyahoga county (Cleveland) by a majority over both Nash and McLean of more than 7,000.

Hamilton county (Cincinnati) was carried by McLean by 1,174, but the Republicans managed to elect four men on the county ticket against the fusion combine.

The Ohio Legislature is Republican in both branches by a good majority.

MISSISSIPPI

Was carried by Longino, the Democratic candidate, by 30,000.

VIRGINIA.

The returns show that the State Senate will be entirely Democratic, the only member outside of the regular party nominees being W. B. Shands, Ind. Democrat.

MARYLAND.

The Democrats have carried the lower house, and the Senate by a majority of three. Full unofficial returns from Baltimore give Smith, (Dem.) for Governor, a majority of 8,192, returns from the rest of the State give his total majority as 11,295.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Returns indicate a Republican majority of not less than 10,000.

Elects a Democratic Governor, the Legislature and probably the Senate.

THE LATEST

Editions of the Republican and Bolting papers still claim the election of Taylor, by a small majority, but the Democrats are the winners.

WILLIAM GOEBEL,

The Next Governor of Kentucky.

From the latest advices received Wm. Goebel will guide the destinies of Kentucky for the next four years. Thus ends one of the hardest fought political fights in the history of the State, and considering the circumstances against which Mr. Goebel had to contend, is the most remarkable victory ever won in any contest. His majority will be small.

Look In Your Mirror

THE NEGRO IN HOT WEATHER

He Cares Not for the Rays of the Blazing Summer Sun.

It has often been said that the capacity of the negro race for enduring heat has never been fully tested. An incident related by a dairyman living on the outskirts of the city seems to bear out this assertion. He was a young negro boy, who looks after the cattle and does chores around the place. The only effect that the heat produces in his case is a desire to slumber. The dairyman had a young calf in the barnyard, and as the sun was pouring in on the poor animal his wife sent "Carolina" out to turn the calf loose, so that he could seek a shady spot. After waiting an hour for her return the housewife went to the barnyard to investigate. There she found both boy and calf curled up in the hot and stifling barnyard. The calf was dead from the effects of the sun, but the boy was slumbering peacefully by its side.

While a negro can stand any amount of heat on his head, he loves to cool his head. It is a common sight in the winter to see a negro boy on a frosty morning with his head bundled up to keep out the cold, and at the same time walking unconcernedly along the frosty ground in his bare feet. One of the hottest places in the city on a hot day is at the lumber wharves of the Florida Central & Peninsular railroad. When the men knock off for noon they frequently take a nap with their faces upturned to the rays of the blazing sun; at the same time they get their feet under the shadow of some friendly lumber pile.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

STORY OF A STAMP.
A Twopenny Black Canadian Had a Remarkable Career.

In the year 1851, a twopenny black Canadian postage stamp was printed by the government at Ottawa. The public did not regard this somber issue with favor, so few were issued. One of these stamps was sent to the Hamilton post office, where it was sold to an old man, who said it was a shame to print the queen's picture on a stamp that might be handled by profane hands. Tenderly the man put it on a parcel, sending it to a friend in the United States. Here, in the waste basket, it lay for many a day, till an errand boy found it, and quickly transferred it to his album. Despairing of getting a good collection, and his fervor somewhat abating, he sold them to a dealer. The new owner, on looking at the catalogue, found that what he had paid five dollars for was worth $25. Accordingly this stamp was slipped into a 25-cent packet, and sent to a dealer residing in Hamilton. When the latter opened the packet he was astonished to find such a valuable stamp, and, being honest, wrote his friend to inform him of what had happened, offering him $1,200 for it. The offer was accepted, and the stamp again changed hands. By this time the stamp had increased in value, and the bequests received in the year, on the Annual stamp, were $1,000. We have this exceeding great and precious promise to strengthen our hearts, lest we should fail or be discouraged. The gospel is destined to run and triumph and fill the whole wide world, even as the waters fill the sea.

MAKES BUSINESS EASY.The Value and Development of Advertising.

Advertising is, indeed, one of the great developments of the century. It has revolutionized business and made it possible to accomplish in a few years what otherwise would have taken generations to compass. Today the advertiser, through the medium of the public press, can introduce his article to the entire public almost literally at a bound. Such a servant at the seller's elbow has naturally made business vastly different from what it was several hundred years ago. It was no longer necessary, as it was in previous generations, to confine one's commercial transactions to a limited area. In fact, the main factor of to-day regards the world as his field; and there are quite a number of proprietary articles, widely and favorably known in every quarter of the civilized world, which have been introduced during the lifetime of their present proprietors, who are men only in the prime of life. With such advertising, by which it is possible to reach and influence hundreds of thousands of persons simultaneously, such a result could not be accomplished in several generations, if indeed it could be accomplished at all. Nor has this advertising benefited the seller only. It has brought to the knowledge of the buyer the hundreds of improvements and articles by which life can be made more pleasant; by which the health can be preserved; by the palate gratified, the intellect fed and satisfied. It is no exaggeration to say that no force has conducted more to knit the world more closely together, nor make our mutual interdependence more apparent. "It is but the simple truth to assert," says a recent writer, "that the loss of the information which the advertisements furnish would be one of the greatest imaginable misfortunes to civilization."—Self-Culture Magazine.

WASTE TIMBER IN NEW YORK.One Kind of Wood That Even Thrifty Italians Won't Take.

There is much waste wood in a big city like New York. Everything that can be used for fuel; no matter what it is or where it is thrown, there is always some man, woman or child ready to cart it away almost before it has passed out of the hands of its first owner. But there is one kind of wood that even the thrifty Italians won't take. It is over 100 more than reported last year. The work has been begun in Christiansia. A church of 76 members has been gathered in 8 months. The present membership in Malmo, Sweden, is 25. Work has been opened in Lund, a university town of 25,000 inhabitants. The Fall Season is On.

Dress Goods, Cloaks, Blankets, Wear, Hosiery, etc., are at demand. Our effort to please. We are not satisfied the customer is. We try to attain success by proper merchandising methods.

The Busy Garment.

There is reason for it; yes, several reasons. First, we're the handsomest Cloak equipment in this section; second, you can absolutely depend upon our garments being right in style, fit, finish, and worthiness of material; third, that they appeal to your sense of economy. Every Garment is new. Prices range from $5.00 to $15.00—all neat, stylish and worthly in every way.

Autumn Hosiery Sale.

Everybody wears stockings.
Everybody wants to wear honest stockings. This Hosiery section of ours is the pride of the store. Its success has been achieved by buying the best and selling at the closest margin of profit possible.
Here are a few:—
Fast black heavy fleeced Hose, 25¢, 35¢ and 40¢.
Heavy fast black cotton Hose 20¢
and 25¢.
Children's heavy ribbed Host (best made) 25¢.

For Blanket Buyers.

Don't think you ever handled any "knockers" Blankets than these. We know they are honestly priced—too honestly for a big profit showing—but, we bought them on an anti-tariff basis and the saving goes to you, where it rightly belongs.
Prices from $2.00 to $6.00 per pair, according to quality and size.

Dress Goods

Shelves and counters laden with fall weaves. Come in and see if we have not "outblessed" all former bests. Note the and prices, and be convinced that we've been doing some masterful buying for you.

BOER WORDS

Meaning and Pronunciation of Those Most Seen in Dispatches.

W. C. T. U. Deplore the President's Philippine Policy.

At the recent National Convention of the W. C. T. U., at Seattle, Wash., some strong resolutions were passed.

The main fight was over two resolutions, one censoring the general government, the President; Attorney General Griggs and ex-Secretary of War Alger by name for their action on the anti-cattle law, and the other denouncing the war in the Philippines. The resolutions were as follows:

"We deeply deplore the attitude taken by our nation with respect to the Philippines Islands, and since governments can derive their just powers only from the consent of the governed, we protest against a policy which would compel foreign people to submit to the rule of the United States, and against the war through which the administration is striving to enforce its policy.

"We protest against the manifestly forced and unjust interpretation of the anti-cattle law as rendered by Attorney General Griggs and upheld by ex-Secretary of War Alger. We urge upon the Chief Executive, William McKinley, immediate consideration of the case which will result in such action as shall be in accord with the expressed will of the people and his own high oath of office."

The resolution protesting against the seating of Congressman Robert was adopted with cheers. At the election of officers held this morning, all the National officers were re-elected.

In late years men have made fortunes out of the tailings of gold mine.
The mills in which the ore formerly was crushed and the crude process therein used allowed a large percentage of the precious metal to escape, and that loss amounted in some cases to a fortune. The stomach is just like a stamp mill in this respect, that when it is not in perfect order it allows the escape and waste of much of the precious nutrient contained in the food.

The loss when continued causes the loss of man's greatest fortune,— health. Science offers a remedy for this condition in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects the "weakness" of the stomach, prevents waste and loss of nourishment, and puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health which enables them to save and assimilate all the nutrient contained in the food which is eaten. In all cases of constipation the use of Dr.
Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will be speedily and permanently cure the disease.

LaGrippe, with its after effects, as usually destroys thousands of people.
It may quickly cure by Ointment Cough Cure, the only remedy that produces immediate results in coughs, cold, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia and throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption.

Gone to Cuba.

J. B. Embry, of Nicholasville, who is one of the best known cattle men in Central Kentucky, has gone to Havana, Cuba, where he is interested in building stock yards. The stock company is composed of H. F. and G. W.
Embry, Louie C. Kimer and Lester English, of Tenn., Tenn. They purchased about twenty-four acres of land on bay at Havana, where they will erect model stock yards. Posts have already been shipped and two cargos of lumber were sent from Pensacola last week. J. B. Embry is a member of the building committee and will remain in Cuba all winter.

Election is over and the next disturbing element will be the inauguration and Legislative enactments. These things will engage the attention of the politicians while the workingmen, those who pay the expense of the government, just saw wood and say nothing. It is obligatory on all good citizens to see that equitable laws are enacted and enforced; that no man or men are legislated in favor of to the disfranchisement of the interests of others. Let the law be to the interests of the entire people. In this day of the concentration of capital it behoves the farmer to turn from the plow, the smith from his anvil, the student from his books and the professional man from his duties to the legislative halls where he may point out and plead for equal rights to all men. This done and greed for that gain which impoverishes the many to the benefit of the classes will have a check and the public will strive for prominence on equal footing.

Ex-Gov. John Young Brown will go down to his political grave hoary haired, having disgraced himself and brought reproach on his own blood, a deserter from life long doctrine and traitor to the party that gave him prominence. Down in the political pit of scorn, the grave of oblivion, is the once honored now pitted John Young Brown.

We held our humble edition over in order to give as full election returns to our readers as possible. Knowing that our people appreciate every enterprising effort of her own people.

FOR THE PARTY.

The readers of the "ADVOCATE" are ready to declare that we have done our full duty to the Democratic party. We believe in the doctrines of Democracy; that when carried into effect they redound to the best interest of the entire country.

For this doctrine we have given our powers. We have plead with Democrats to stand by the organization, when they themselves, if true to a principle, should have been pleaders also. The time for pleading is over and if Democracy is caused to trail in shame, to be dominated by that party which is in sympathy with centralized capital and concentrated forces we are in no way party to the humiliating deed.

We delight to contend against an open enemy but he who would wear the uniform of one party and fight under the flag of another, we have not yet learned how to combat. If you are asked how the ADVOCATE feels over the results just say she will continue to fight for those principles which make all men equal and free.

The time is coming when those voters who deserted Democracy and allied themselves with a party which many of them taught, their ways were corrupt, will rise their action of the 7th day of November 1899. Republicans will have no more use for them and the confidence of Democrats in them is shaken.

Dismissing State affairs for the present we now turn to national politics and for the same doctrines we have contended in the State we shall work and favor that they be adopted by the nation.

FORCE BILL.

Talk about election laws, about force bill, about the Goebel bill, if you please, and compare even what your imagination has led you to, with the bayonet rule of Republicans of last Tuesday, and ask yourself where are we drifting. Men of Kentucky, citizens of the proud old Democratic commonwealth have we not emerged from that rule which so long after the contest of the States held the South in subjugation. Can you longer identify yourself with a party that would incite riot and bring upon our State disgrace? Kentuckians have you not with burning faces read the speeches of Bradley, Denny, and others who, if they did not declare it, did by their presence give countenance to the expression delivered to an ignorant multitude "wade knee deep in blood or secure your rights." Think on this and like expressions to the ignorant classes and then consider the insults to and assaults on your women and ask the question, who is responsible for it? It's the politician that levels himself with the brute man that makes him to believe he is equal to the refined and cultured and encourages him in his assaults.

OUR NEEDS.

Get to business, and, with the same time and money expended in politics Mt. Sterling can have a college equal to any in the State. We need a college, for boys and for girls. We can by the same energy and outlay have water-works and motors to keep in motion every light piece of machinery in the city—give water for fires, etc.

With the same application and combined effort we could have another railroad or railroads to cheapen our rate and unearth our rich store houses. Get to business and support our needs.

DON'T BE RESTLESS.

We have not lost confidence in our people. They are not likely to go far wrong and if they should there are laws by which misdoings could be corrected.

From some sources returns are coming in slowly. From others there are many inaccuracies. For instance a report went out from here Tuesday that the county would go 50 Democratic and the returns afterwards showed that the county went Republican 48.

We may expect many changes to be reported between now and Friday, when the ballot is to be scrutinized and passed on by the election commissioners. That they will be pro and con is nothing.

in more or less than we may expect. However our people may be assured that the result will be in accord with the vote as cast. If the Republicans have the State by one vote it is theirs by right and no man should oppose it. On the contrary if the Democrats have a majority of one vote the election is ours, we are entitled to it and rest assured it will be so declared and we have no fears of our objection by Messrs. Bradley, Denny and others who in their imagination could see their people "wading knee deep in blood." We have had an unusually orderly election and we will have a fair and honest count under the election law.

ding the next few weeks, owing to the large order given by the British government for horses and mules for hauling ammunition wagons and heavy artillery over the plains of the Transvaal in the conflict with the Boers. Orders for thousands of horses have been put out by the British government, and dealers are scouring the country in search of material to fill the contract. (Since the American battlefield is stamped and lost the battle to the English near Ladysmith, the demand for them from that quarter may not be so great.—Ed.)

Mr. H. E. Rockwood, of Illinois, who recently sold a carload of cattle on the Chicago market for $7 per cwt., assigned two weeks ago, writes to the Breeders' Gazette the following particulars about the feeding, etc., of the cattle: "The cattle sold by me recently in Chicago at 7 cents per pound were the heavy steer of a bunch of 90 head I bought in Chicago on the 23d of last February. They were graded Shorthorn, two and three years old, and showed some corn feeding.
They were put out to ear corn first and when on full feed worked gradually to shelled corn, giving them as they wanted till shipped. For roughness they were given clover hay until May 1, and then timothy. They were turned on grass May 25, and given a little hay all summer. The last 8 weeks about two pounds of oil meal per head was mixed in the shelled corn each day. These 14 cattle were not weighed separately from the others, but as soon as I can judge, weighed 1,150 pounds when I got A Miner's Coffin.

A miner who has just died at Tong, near Bradford, aged 67, was buried in a coffin which he had specially constructed for himself 20 years ago.
During that interval the coffin was used as a receptacle for his clothes and those of his wife. At deceased's request he was buried with a pump of coal for a pillow, and with some tobacco and a favorite pipe by his side.

CONCERNING A CARP.

A Boy Feeds Him and the Fish Wakes at Theft.

A carp about 18 inches long lives over in the basin of the fountain in the plaza in front of the Borough hall. A number of gold fish can make this their home, but the carp is the ruler of the pond, and many a longing eye has been cast upon him by fishermen in the surrounding office buildings. In fact, so great was the desire to land this fine specimen that one of the chief clerks doing business in the Borough hall made application for a permit to fish in this basin with the hope of having a good tussle with the carp, and was grievously disappointed when the request was refused.

But the carp is attractive to others as well, and the calmen occasionally throw things into the basin to see the fish rise to it. And, again, the spot seems to have been a double attraction to at least one of the newboys who said "ext-e-e-e" around the hall. This particular chap is probably seven or eight years of age. He is short even for these years. He is innocent of hat or shoes or stockings, and his costume consists of a pair of alleged trousers, hung across one shoulder by a string, and a rag of a shirt. He and the carp have become great playfellows and the urchin visits the rim of the basin very often. He ventures so close sometimes that bets are made as to his intention of taking a dip himself. From somewhere he obtains crusts of bread and these he feeds the fish in small pieces.

To those who have watched the life of the fellow, however, it has become an accepted fact that he uses the fish only as a blind to his real purpose.
Surrounding the basin are many fine flowers in full bloom. The lad generally stands either in the midst of these or very near to them. While feeding the carp he stealthily glances all around the plaza, and when he thinks he is safe he will dive into a cluster of the flowers and rising with a handful, make off with them at surprising speed. Just what he does with these blossoms no one has found out yet, and that he has not yet been actually caught is due, perhaps, more to an appreciation of his cunning than to any lack of ability on the part of the guardians of the peace.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Lost Cause.

The forthcoming issue of the Lost Cause, says a Louisville paper, will be a red letter affair, inasmuch as it is a Winnie Davis number. The frontpiece of the magazine will be a cut of the monument raised by the Ladies of the Confederacy in honor of the dead of the South, and an appropriate poem will accompany it. The principal feature of the issue, however, will be an article on Miss Davis from the pen of that eloquent writer, Col. Bennett H. Young. Louisville's eagles eager to show all honor to the memory of the dead daughter of the Confederacy.

In the church the bier was placed in front of the altar and the funeral service proceeded, lasting about 90 minutes. At the close of this service near relatives and intimate friends of the dead man crowded around the bier, lamenting, crying and apostro-phising, and, as we thought, kissing the body.

Finally the crowd began to disperse.

The building became half empty, and we wondered when the burial was to be.
We knew the cemetery was more than a mile away, and wondered who was going to carry the dead there.
While we waited the picturesque bier was dismantled, and various persons claimed and took away the articles which had adorned it, and in a moment we could see nothing but the bare woodwork of the bier, which two men lifted and moved out of sight, apparently to a recess in the church.

Then our questions brought the information that the man whose funeral we had attended had died and was buried in New Orleans, La., months before that day. We afterward attended in Syria the funeral of a man who died and was buried in Australia, and of another who had been buried in Brazil.—N. Y. Herald.

In the course of his journey through Abydos and the regions to the southwest of that country, Capt.
Welby passed through 20 tribes, and no trouble was experienced with any of them. There were no large towns anywhere. The inhabitants live in tukus. One tribe, the Tirkana, was of immense stature, most of the men being seven feet in height. They had long hair, extending to the waist, and marked like felt. This they generally had turned up in such a manner as to form a receptacle for small articles and knick-knacks, the ends being finally twisted into a tail with a thin stick, about which they are very particular.

QUEER FUNERALS IN SYRIA

Time and Place of Death Makes Little Difference in the Ceremony.

Some friends and I chanced to attend church in an Aramaic village near Damascus a few Sundays ago. At the close of the service a bell began to toll, and we were told that a man had died. His funeral was about to take place. We joined a group of fellows who were to go to the funeral to offer sympathy and to console with the bereaved.

On the way to the house of mourning we were joined at intervals by more friendly persons with motives similar to ours, until our number increased to 50 or 60. When we arrived we found hundreds of townfolk already parading or standing near and around the house.

The most noticeable thing was an immense white tent, fringed with scarlet, pitched among and over the trees, under which was a group of about 20 women of all ages with costumes of all colors and representing nearly all fashions, from the primitive Syrian peasant dress to that commonly in use in the United States.

In the center of this group was the bier, most gorgeously decorated and ornamented with various kinds of gay material, some of which we afterward discovered consisted of real "ladies' best dresses," borrowed for the occasion. All around the bier there was a great discord of shrieks, wailings and crying.

The immediate male relatives of the deceased stood in a line some distance from the tent to receive the sympathy from such as ourselves.
When our company approached we arrayed ourselves in a line parallel to theirs and eight or ten feet apart, and in chorus we said: "Our will is with you. It grieves us, it pains us.
May health and peace attend the living.
May God have mercy upon him and [parrot you]."

To this the relatives returned expressions of appreciation of our sympathy, and wished that that which was deducted from the dead man's days might be added to our days.

We then retired to join the waiting multitude and make room for other condolers, who went through the same form.

Now and then we could see big trays of lemonade and coffee passed among the newcomers. Some of the condolers on their approach would start a chant apostrophizing the deceased.

After six or seven hours the priests present donned their stoles and pushed their way through the crowd to the bier and conducted a preliminary service. Then the bier was lifted up by eight men shoulder high and, a procession to the church was formed, which the priests led, chanting hymns.

In the church the bier was placed
minutes. At the close of this service
bier, lamenting, crying and apostro-
the body.

Finally the crowd began to disperse.
The building became half empty, and
we wondered when the burial was to be.
was going to carry the dead there.
While we waited the picturesque bier
men lifted and moved out of sight,
apparently to a recess in the church.

Then our questions brought the information that the man whose funeral
who died and was buried in Australia,
in Brazil.—N. Y. Herald.

southwest of that country, Capt.
no trouble was experienced with any
particular.

RICE-THROWING AT WEDDINGS

A reprehensible Practice According to the Writer's Ideas.

Among the wedding customs in vogue in this country there is none more peculiar than that of throwing "noodled rice" at the departing bride and groom. Various explanations of its origin and symbolism have been given from time to time, but not one of them has provided a sound justification for this wanton waste of food supplies nor for the discomfit which it often causes to those at whom it is directed.

Economists estimate that the material thus squandered in the course of a year would make three solid acres of rice paddies five inches deep, or enough soups to feed the entire population of 100,000 men. Aside, however, from the economic aspect, the practice is reprehensible from the social standpoint. Rice thrown at a bridal couple has a perverse habit of getting into wrong places. It frequently gets into the bride's hair and hat; often it finds a lodgment in the groom's ears and beard, and sometimes it slips down between his shirt collar and his neck, causing him to look worried and think things that do not proper place in the mind of any man. In short, rice throwing at the rice-throwing fied is torments that should be abolished in the interest of economy and social harmony.

Only the need of reform in this already received official

The city council of has taken advanced ground by passing an ordinance prohibiting the throwing of rice at newly married couples in that place, and providing severe penalties for violations of the act. The practice appears to have been seriously overworked in that town, so much so, in fact, that the neighborhood was recently threatened with a rice famine.

the custom might be tolerated if the rice throwers would only tie their oilings in stout bags, or put it into barrels, so that the recipients could take the grain home with them for household use. There would be an element of utility in that sort of thing that sensible people would appreciate, whereas the present method is inherently pernicious in that it sets an example of extravagance to young persons at a time of life when they should be taught the importance of domestic economy.

And why rice at bridal couples, anyhow? Why not split peas, navy beans, dried corn, hickory-nuts, apples or potatoes? Any of these would be just as good as rice, and some of them even better for young persons about to begin housekeeping. If the custom were broadened somewhat a young couple whose friends and relatives were sufficiently enthusiastic could in this way gather in an assortd supply of provisions that would be exceedingly handy to have in the house.—N. Y. Mail and GREENBACKS or Government Money.

At close of our Civil War in 1865, there appeared in the London Times the following:

"If that mischievous financial policacy which had its origin in the North Civil War in that country could become induced down to a fix, then then that government will furnish money without cost. It will have all the money that is necessary to carry on its trade and commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized nations if the world in general and all countries will be induced to use it."

THAT GOVERNMENT MUST BE

DESTROYED OR IT WILL DE-

STROY EVERY MONARCHY ON

THIS GLOBE."

Famous Hazzard circular, to capitalists in New York, and the Buel

Bank circular to United States Bankers, and the famous circular to the famous corruption fund raised in England and Germany, estimated at $1,500,000, were the agents that secured the closing of our mint against silver.

The "walk into my parlor" policy of England, during and since the Spanish War, is the latest evidence of English Diplomacy in shaping the destiny of the United States Government.

Notwithstanding the famine price of wheat in the Spanish War, and fabulous expenditures of money by our government during the past year, gold and silver are in value eleven per cent.

and all other values decreased in the same proportion.

For a thorough understanding of the money question, or silver issue, the Cincinnati Enquirer has given every evidence of its ability to teach, explain and produce all facts and truth. It is a paper that ought and can read by all classes with pleasure and profit.

Russell's Comedians.

Russell's Comedians appeared before a large audience at the Wagner last night. Their program includes many very clever vaudeville specialties and the audience was well pleased. John and Eunice Patten in a musical sketch, Bassler in his balancing act, the Brothers Zell in acrobatic evolutions, Berry and Hughes in a musical mélange, Marcus Doyle in songs and dances, St. Clair Sisters in their cake walk, Mazier and Connely in a knockout skit, Leonzo in juggling feats, were among the strong people on the bill. Their work was neatly done. A fine band and orchestra are connected with the troupe.—Bradford Era.

Sunday Cutting Affray.

On last Sunday at the boarding house of Mrs. Stephens on Locust street trouble came up between Bob Conly and John Maddox. Conly is a resident of this place and Maddox is recently from Ohio. It is said the two passed glasses across the table with modern combatative force for the purpose of doing harm to the person. They parted and later had an engagement near the corner of Locust and Mayville streets in which Maddox suffered a slight wound from Conly's knife. A messenger had been dispatched for police and soon Messrs. Calk and Reeves arrived ready to quell the disturbance.

Conly defied arrest and Reeves in compliance with his duty as an officer engaged the enraged man and was stabbed in the abdomen. The wound is deep but did not reach the hollow. Drs. W. R. Thompson and C. H. Durston were summoned to attend the wounded man who, at this writing is doing well.

Conly was arrested and is now in jail, and for a disturbance of the peace Maddox was also placed under arrest. It is said that Conly was inox and since he did not think the drunk was one carried over from Saturday he must have had a stock of hand-on.
